26° South Bush Boho Hotel offers all the creature comforts required for an unforgettable stay, within the soothing serenity of the African bush. The Magaliesberg mountain range forms a picturesque backdrop for weddings, corporate getaways and leisure seekers alike. Situated within the Cradle Moon Conservancy in Muldersdrift Gauteng, this private reserve provides the opportunity to escape the bustle of the city but is a convenient 25 minute drive from Lanseria International Airport and 1.5 hour drive from OR Tambo.

The hotel boasts 76 spacious rooms, stylishly appointed and over-looking our sparkling pool and the bushveld beyond. Each room offers free WiFi, selected DSTV channels, individual air-conditioning, a hairdryer, bath and shower combination with amenities, and tea/coffee making facilities. The conservancy is situated on the banks of a picturesque river and has a myriad of general species of game including, black and blue wildebeest, crocodile, rhino and hippo to name a few.

Whether it's a romantic getaway for two, conferencing or team building, a weekend wedding, or just a quick getaway, 26° South is sure to meet the expectations of the most discerning of travellers.
